

HAPPY NEW YEAR OF THE DRAGON

PEACE & SAFETY FOR YOU & YOURS IN THE NEW YEAR

CELEBRATION OF A THOUSAND LIGHTS

Chinese New Year's Eve on January 22nd 2012 will usher in the Year of the Water Dragon. We would like to invite you to join us for our New Year's Thousand Lights Dharma Rite and Light a Candle During the Buddhist Prayer Service to Wish Good Luck to Your Loved Ones for 2012.

ANTAISUI SERVICE

Chinese astrology uses 12 animal signs to describe the energy or characteristic traits of each year and month. Everything that happens in a particular year is influenced by these traits or energy. So the sign or character of the year that you were born in would influence your own personal character and personality.

As we head into a New Year, we look to see if our sign is going to have an easy and harmonious relationship with the energy of the year i.e. if it is going to bring us luck, or if instead it is going to be more of a clash.

For anyone who is facing a more challenging year a ceremony called Antaisui can be performed to make your year safer and more peaceful. This ceremony is performed by many schools and faiths in China. As members of a Chinese Esoteric School of Buddhism we have been taught how to perform this ceremony.

Each year usually just four signs will face a more challenging year. For 2012 those affected are anyone who was born in the year of the Dragon: 2012, 2000, 1988, 1976, 1964, 1952;

Dog: 2006, 1994, 1982, 1970, 1958, 1946;

Ram: 2003, 1991, 1979, 1967, 1955, 1943;

Ox: 2009, 1997, 1985, 1961, 1949, 1937.
